On receipt of payment, a booking confirmation, receipt and pre-course information will be issued.

Cancellation

Cam First Aid reserves the right to cancel a course.

In the unlikely event of a course being cancelled by Cam First Aid, a full refund of fees will be made.

Responsibilities

First Aid is an active, practical subject. Participants are normally expected to be physically fit enough to kneel, twist and bend over simulated casualties, to sit on the floor, to perform simulated CPR, roll, help roll and help lift simulated casualties. If in doubt, please consult with us before booking.

Some courses include an outdoor element, in these cases candidates are responsible for provision of their own suitable clothing - please contact us for further advice.

For indoor training sessions, wear loose comfortable clothing, not shorts or low cut tops.

Candidates should bring to our attention any medical condition that may affect their ability to participate in the course safely and without causing harm to themselves.

Candidates are responsible for behaving in a manner appropriate to this type of course where physical contact is intrinsic to the training. Unacceptable behaviour or comments may lead to individuals being asked to leave the course and no refund of fees will be made.

Candidates will be responsible for the cost and repair of any wilful damage caused by them to the training venue or materials.

If you are in any doubt, please contact us for advice.
